

NO TESTIMONY BY PESHLAN
THE LAWYER DEFENDANT KEEPS HIS WITNESSES STAND.

They are PLANNED A BIG CROSS-EXAMINATION and trials with him. His MINDY Letters.

Lawyer Charles J. Peshall, the rather unusual combination counsel-defendant, continued yesterday in the General Sessions, before Judge Martin, the defense against the charge of criminally libeling A. P. Vredenburgh of the American Kennel Club by publishing an allegation that Mr. Vredenburgh's accounts were jangled and falsified. All through the trial, which began on Friday, Mr. Peshall, who talks about 200 words a minute and seldom stops talking, has harped on one string, namely, that August Belmont Previews of the club had conspired with others to drive him, Peshall, out of the club and disown him, because he had taken high ground against the rabbit courting instituted on Hempstead Plains two years ago, and that Mr. Vredenburgh's charge of libel was a part of the conspiratorial work.

After Albert D. Lewis, former editor of the studbook of the Kennel Club, had been called to testify as to the terms upon which he edited the book, Mr. Vredenburgh relinquished the chairmanship, Mr. Peshall called Mr. Belmont and said to him, "I stand in all of his questions, although Mr. Belmont said 'air' spoke." Mr. Lewis, however, did not refer to the witness as "new Belmont," as he did a score of times in his preview for the defense.

Mr. Peshall, who has granted the Great Monument Committee's request that he permit a photographic reproduction to be made of his copy of "Marching Through Georgia" in the handwriting of Gen. Sherman. The Executive Committee will give a copy to each future subscriber to the monument fund.
